CSW Calendar of Events

Global Solutions Exchange (GSX) Working Group on the Nexus of Neoliberal Economics and Extremism
Friday, March 10 (9:00am – 4:00pm), UNDP Headquarters - Invitation only
Hosted by ICAN and United Nations Development Programme (UNDP)
The GSX is a new mechanism for structured and systematic engagement of civil society with governments and multilateral organizations, on critical topics related to the prevention of extremism and promotion of rights, peace and pluralism. This meeting will examine the relevance and linkages between macroeconomic policies, particularly neoliberalism, and the rise of extremism through a gendered lens.

Shrinking Civic Space for the Feminist Movement
Tuesday, March 14 (12:30pm), Community Center Church
Hosted by CIVICUS and WHRD-IC

Gender Crisis and Recovery
Tuesday, March 14 (4:45pm – 6:00pm), Express-bar at UNHQ GA building
Hosted by ICAN and UNDP
This side event will present effective strategies for addressing gender equality and empowering women and girls in recovery processes. UNDP will present highlights of its new Guidance Package on Gender and Recovery. Speakers will share their experiences of successful recovery and peacebuilding initiatives that empower women and girls as a foundational approach to sustaining peace.

The Role of Female Parliamentarians in Implementing the Global WPS Agenda
Wednesday, March 15 (1:15pm – 2:30pm), Conference Room 8 in UNHQ GA building
Hosted by ICAN, Women in Parliament (WIP), Permanent Missions of Canada, Germany and Lithuania, UNDP
This event will address the positive potential for greater collaboration between parliamentarians and civil society, particularly women-led organizations, in preventing extremism through gender-responsive macro-economic policies and promoting peace, rights and pluralism.

Reclaiming the Universality of Rights
Wednesday, March 15 (4:30pm), Salvation Army
Hosted by OURs Working Group

Rising Extremism, Macro-Economic Policies, and the Relevance of Gendered Analysis
Thursday, March 16 (9:00am – 10:45am), Uganda House
Hosted by ICAN, UNDP, Inter-Parliamentary Union (IPU), and Permanent Mission of Denmark to the UN
This event will explore the nexus of macro-economic policies and rising extremism with a gendered lens, and help identify current threats, potential mitigation strategies, and alternative macro-economic approaches.

Road to Reconciliation – Women in Post War Reconciliation: Justice, Hope and Dignity in Sri Lanka
Thursday, March 16 (2:45pm – 4:00pm), Sri Lanka Mission - Invitation only
Hosted by ICAN, Association of War Affected Women (AWAW), Sri Lanka Mission, and UN Women

Intersectionality Crisis: Looking into the Intersectionality Between the Role of WHRDS and the SDGs
Friday, March 17 (12:30pm), Boss Room at Church Center
Hosted by WHRD MENA Coalition and Nazra for Feminist Studies

A Purple Economy Complimenting the Green for a Gender Egalitarian and Sustainable Economic Order
Monday, March 20 (10:30am), Salvation Army
Hosted by ICAN partners from Turkey with Women for Women's Human Rights (WWHR)